Subject: Contracting Out

Dear Mr. Portelance:

This is to confirm our understanding reached during bargaining for the renewal of the Craft and Services Employees Collective Agreement regarding the issue of contracting out.

What follows has been developed jointly in a spirit of cooperation and trust based on the belief that there is a value and benefit to the employee, the Company and the customer if:

- Employment security is enhanced by a productive, healthy and cost effective organization.
- While striving to provide employment security to Regular employees, there is an improved understanding as to why contractors are used.
- There is a greater involvement by employees in the decision-making process.
- The Union and the Company work together and act responsibly balancing the interests of the customer, the Company and the employee regarding the issue of the utilization of contractors.

Based on the principles outlined above, the parties have agreed to establish forums for the exchange of information and to encourage consultation between management and representatives of the Union on issues related to the contracting out of work which may be performed by bargaining unit employees.

At least once per year, or more frequently where agreed to by both parties, an Officer of the Union (or a delegate) shall meet with a Tier A manager (who has bargaining unit employees in his organization) to discuss the broad principles associated with the contracting out issue as it pertains to the manager's organization.

EXHIBIT 136

Each quarter, or more frequently where agreed to by both parties, each Tier B manager shall meet with the Local Union President (representing bargaining unit employees in the Tier B manager's organization) to discuss and review contracting out activity and concerns within the manager's organization. The Tier B manager and the Local Union President may jointly agree to delegate, in part or in full, the responsibility for these quarterly meetings where, in their opinion, such delegation would result in more meaningful dialogue between the parties.

It is agreed that the meetings contemplated under this letter may be face-to-face, by conference call, etc., as deemed appropriate by the individuals involved.

Although not intended to limit the scope of discussions between the Local Union President and Tier B manager (or their designates), areas which shall be reviewed include:

- Work contracted out by the manager's organization since the last meeting.
- Feedback on work which was contracted out (to highlight possible improvements or suggest alternatives).
- Work which is expected to be contracted out (with as much advance notice as practicable).
- Alternatives to the contracting out of work (e.g., utilizing Part-Time employees, more efficient utilization of available employees across districts/departments, etc.).

In discussions related to the contracting out of bargaining unit work, relevant considerations may include, but are not limited to, the type of work being contracted out, the availability of necessary skills and equipment, price and quality competitiveness, balancing out the amount of work required to be performed, etc.

The parties' wish is that these forums encourage a growing and meaningful dialogue at the operating level of the Company on the issue of contracting out.

Yours truly,

Steve Desgagné
Chief Negotiator

Subject: Training Programs Outside the Country

Dear Mr. Portelance:

This is to confirm our understanding that employees of the Craft and Services employees bargaining unit who, at the request of the Company, take courses or attend training programmes outside the country, remain covered by the bargaining unit during their attendance at such courses or programmes.

When employees are assigned to courses outside the country, the provisions of the Collective Agreement in effect at the time of the assignment shall continue to apply. It is agreed, however, that per diem allowances will be paid in U.S. dollars.

If the circumstances are such that the employer can not apply the provisions of section 23.12 of the Collective Agreement, the assignment will be on a voluntary basis unless the parties conclude a letter of agreement relating to the conditions applicable during this assignment, in which case all employees assigned to these courses or programmes will be covered by the conditions of this agreement.

In all cases, the employee will have thirty (30) days (as defined in section 14.01 of the Collective Agreement) from the date of his return to Canada to file a complaint or a grievance in virtue of the provisions of the Collective Agreement or, as the case may be, in virtue of the provisions of the agreement referred to in the previous paragraph.

Yours truly,

Subject: Job Swaps

Dear Mr. Portelance:

This is to record the understanding reached during bargaining for the renewal of the Craft and Services employees Collective Agreement regarding "job swaps".

The parties have agreed to continue with the trial implementation of a program of job swaps which will permit two employees in the same occupation to apply to exchange locations provided each is fully qualified to perform the duties of the other's position. The job swap must result in the transfer (i.e., not reassignment) of the employees. When a relocation is arranged as a result of a job swap, the cost of the relocation will be borne entirely by the employee and that location becomes his reporting centre on the first day he reports.

A potential job swap must be initiated by the employees, requested by the Union and authorized by the Company. The Company's approval of a job swap will be subject to service requirements and its assessment of each employee's qualifications to perform the required work. Only employees whose performance on their existing job meets job requirements may be considered for a job swap.

Details regarding the job swap trial will be communicated to employees by the Union following consultation with the Company at the Joint Labour Relations Committee.

A job swap will be considered as an exception falling under the provisions of section 22.14 and will not be subject to the normal job filling procedures contained in the collective agreement. The Union agrees that no aspect of the job swap trial may be the subject of a grievance under Article 14. It is understood and agreed that the Union will save the Company harmless from any and all claims which may be made against it by any employee as a result of the job swap trial.

Subject: Security Clearance

Dear Mr. Portelance:

This is to confirm the following:

As concerns with safeguarding business information grow, it is now common that our customers require that Bell Canada employees undergo various levels of security clearances prior to, or after the signature of an agreement for provision of services.

Considering that these customers are critical to the continued success of Bell Canada, it is necessary to ensure that, at any given time, a sufficient number of Craft and Services employees have the appropriate security clearance in order to be granted access to certain areas of our customers' business.

Requests for security clearances are the norm and cooperation in obtaining such requests are vital for our success. As a result, Unifor agrees that Bell Canada may request that Craft and Services employees undergo the level of security clearance required by our customers to perform work for them when it is for a reasonable purpose, in accordance with the Personal Information Protection and Electronic Documents Act (PIPEDA).

Sincerely,

Subject : Printing of the Collective Agreement

Mr. Portelance :

This note confirms our discussion at the bargaining table for the renewal of the Bell Canada Craft and services Collective Agreement.

The Company agrees to have the Craft and services Collective Agreement printed in a company where employees are represented by Unifor as long as the distribution service and costs are comparable to those the Company pays using its current printers.

The Company will proceed with a request for proposal with its usual suppliers and with suppliers proposed by the Union.

According to the results of the request for proposal, the Company will decide to which supplier it will award the contract. Should the supplier's employees be represented by Unifor, the Company agrees to have the Union label on the cover and first page.

Sincerely,

Steve Desgagné

Subject: Flame resistant and arc-rated insulated coveralls

Mr. Portelance :

This note confirms our discussion at the bargaining table for the renewal of the Bell Canada Craft and Services Collective Agreement.

Effective January 1, 2017, "insulated" coveralls will be available through the Bell Branded Clothing Program. This version, unlike insulated flame resistant and arc-rated coveralls, are not intended as personal protective equipment (PPE).

Local management will consult with the Corporate Health and Safety team for the purchase of flame resistant and arc-rated coveralls for technicians as required (ie. some cable and power roles).
